

The Constitution of the United States of America—A Spiritual Perspective

Few Americans realize that the Constitution of the United States of America is a spiritual document, a divinely inspired work that has outlasted any other constitution in modern times.

The U.S. Constitution is a covenant between Americans and their God, the Mighty I AM Presence, the I AM THAT I AM that Moses saw. Those who are elected from among the people are intended to be sons and daughters of God. Therefore, the people of the U.S.A. should be able to rely on their leaders who represent them because, ideally, they will act as sons of God, who chosen the path of the heart, symbolized by the fleur-de-lis, sign of the three-fold flame of Life. In the heart of the flame of life within you, you are Sons and Daughters of Liberty from every nation who bear in your members the true Spirit of America! ⁱ

Thus the name “America” is the name of a nation but it is also the name of a body of people who are Light-bearers or bearers of the Light. The emissaries of this people, long ago sent by God, determined to establish this land as the place where the LORD God might enjoy a relationship with his own sons and daughters, establishing and preserving their reason for being on this earth as the defenders of freedom’s holy light. ⁱⁱ

Therefore all who are a part of this company bearing the name America and Americans, embody the Spirit of America, and therefore may call themselves in the spiritual sense “Americans.” This is a very ancient word that came from, it is believed, Amerigo Vespucci, a cartographer from the time of Christopher Columbus. Thus this mapmaker was given and in turn gave a name -- “America” -- that would contain, in cipher, the name of a race of lightbearers who came to earth long ago, the “I AM Race,” whose origins can be traced to the God Star Sirius and who have now reappeared in the history of the United States.

Thus, the true souls of light in this nation desire to live life as disciples of the Living Word and the Law, by the covenants of a spiritual law, which is embedded within the American Constitution. As they live by these covenants they are thereby protecting all in embodiment and reserving unto them those inalienable rights which originally derived from the their Higher Self, their beloved Mighty I AM Presence, such as the rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness (the pursuit of soul liberation).ⁱⁱⁱ

Thus the Constitution and its interpretation are intended to be reflected in the laws of the nation and the states. It is the intent of Providence that these laws might be secured and interpreted so as to defend the divine right of the individual to exercise the four sacred freedoms -- freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of assembly and freedom of religion – as well as the right to pursue the Master/disciple relationship, i.e. the pursuit of spiritual liberation and a revolution in higher consciousness.^{iv}

This Constitution is not meant to be easily changed because contained within it are spiritual keys from the vision and foresight of the founding fathers. When we understand it as a divine document we will not want to change it for it ties us to our God.

As we worship God, we will guarantee the freedom of everyone to worship him in the form that we hold most dear, whether it is Christ or Krishna, Gautama or one of the representatives of the Divine Mother, such as Mother Mary. As we stand and still stand under our own vine and fig tree, our own Higher Self, we will defend our right to be—against all enemies, including the forces of nonbeing, darkness and death!^v

The voice of the soul of America must be heard and must be articulated. Learn to stand, feet firmly planted upon the soil of this great land and still stand vigilant in its defense. Resolve to know God: to dare, to do, to be silent and to be his voice when called upon to speak.^{vi}

UNITED WE STAND!

When the government is hanging by a thread, remember to give the mantra of the Goddess of Liberty, United We Stand:

United we stand in Liberty's flame
United we march in God's Holy name!
United we defend the women and her seed
United we pledge the American's creed.
United we stand 'gainst foreigner and foe,
United we challenge the threatening woe!
United we carry the banner of Light,
United we win in the glorious fight!
